Het Koorenhuis, Prinsegracht 27, 2512 EW Den Haag

18.00 Kick-Off Ceremonies:
Reception, Music with Jose Neto & Refreshments

We warmly welcome filmmakers and their crew members to an evening of becoming acquainted with one another, music, sharing stories, finding out more about film making and the IFFH festival... and just enjoying each other's company.

Live Performance by Renowned Guitarist, Jose Neto

Neto is performing as a goodwill gesture of friendship to support the festival and motivate the filmmakers in the spirit of artistic solidarity.

Brazilian guitarist José Neto, founder of The Netoband and co-founder of the jazz-fusion group Fourth World with Aírto Moreira and Flora Purim, has toured with Steve Winwood for 18 years, released solo albums, and starred in the award-winning documentary The Man Behind the White Guitar. Born in São Paulo and classically trained at the São Paulo Academy of Music, he moved to New York in 1978 to join Harry Belafonte as guitarist and later Musical Director—roles he held throughout Belafonte's life. Neto has also collaborated with legends like Eric Clapton, Herbie Mann, Jim Capaldi, Paquito D'Rivera, Tania Maria, Carlos Santana, and the Allman Brothers.
